

APPLICATION FOR IAWP WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP

The International Association of Workforce Professionals has 2 scholarships equal to the early-bird registration package to pay for conference registration. The scholarship is available to active members that have a desire to attend the Workforce Development Conference. Priority will be given to first time attendees. Applications will be evaluated on a point system based on meeting or exceeding the following criteria:

- have no financial support provided from either their agency or chapter (1 point);
- be currently employed (i. e. not a retiree) (1 point)
- be a first-time attendee (1 point)
- currently hold an office (2 points) or chair a committee in their chapter or subchapter (1 point) (if both 3 points)
- submit a paragraph on how they are going to support the IAWP moving forward (1 point)

Members may apply again but not in consecutive years. First time attendees will be given priority.

The scholarship recipient will be expected to:

- write an article for the Flash before the conference ends about what they learned from the workshops and general sessions they attended
- attend all general sessions, workshop sessions, business meetings and District caucus

TO APPLY provide the following information:

1	Name
2	Employer Name
3	E-mail address
4	Phone number(s)
5	Are you a first time attendee?
6	Current Chapter Office held
7	Current Chapter Committee Role(s)
8	Paragraph attached?

In the event of a tie, names will be drawn at random.
